

A PAIR OF BOLD BURGLARS

A Bogus Detective and an Ex-Convict Run Down and Now in the Toils.

The Screams of Two Young Women Spoil the Plans of Two Bad Men.

The Local Detectives are Sure They Have New Boarders for the Penitentiary.

The city sleuths have run down a pair of bold burglars. The work of placing them in the toils has been diligently and quietly conducted, and the detectives have quietly chained evidence around their prisoners that leaves no room for doubt that they will go over the road. The men arrested are Jos. Kelly, alias Jesse Rick and Ed. Nieman, the latter one of the snide detectives who was mentioned in these columns recently, as a representative of a Sacramento detective bureau. The scheme was to give a bogus certificate of membership and a star to an applicant and upon the receipt of $25 the dupe was made a full fledged detective. Through some means Nieman carried genuine papers and used them as a shield.

Kelly, alias Rick, has only been out of the penitentiary since October. He was sentenced in Butte last summer to one year for stealing a watch from a saloon on Park street, kept by a woman. He is a young man, but old in crime, and his confinement does not seem to have benefited him in the least. For some time past Nieman has been working in Butte's blacksmith shop on Lawrence street. He was arrested there yesterday by Detective Walters and City Marshal Hard, and Kelly was arrested on Bridge street by Walters and Phil Best. Walters lodged a complaint of burglary against the pair. The particular case for which they are wanted is this: On Saturday, Nov. 9, two men attempted to burglarize the residence of F. E. Ward, at No. 315 Montana avenue, corner of Eighth avenue. One entered through the kitchen window and the other through the back door. This was about 10:30 p. m. One of the men went into a bedroom where two young women were sleeping, and as the prowler entered the room one of the young women awoke and saw a man approaching the bed with a knife in one hand and a handkerchief in the other. As she noticed this she screamed aloud and her sister, who was aroused by the screams, joined in the chorus and the unwelcome visitor turned on his heels and fled. About 11 o'clock Mr. Ward came home and he at once noticed a strong smell of chloroform. Mr. Ward did not notify the authorities of the occurrence until three days after it happened. Detectives Walters and Best and Officer Vanasse were put to work on the case, and suspicion at once rested on Nieman, as he was one of a gang which was frustrated in an attempt to burglarize the residence of C. K. Wells a few weeks ago, when Nieman and several of his confederates were arrested.

One of the Miss Wards has identified one of the prisoners as one of the men who entered her house. The recent burglaries of the residence of the Rev. Berry and Price are attributed to these men. One of the prisoners is in the county jail and the other in the city jail.

Ed Nieman was seen at the city jail last night by a reporter. He is 21 years of age, and has been working in George Burris' blacksmith shop since last August. He laid the blame for everything to his partner Kelly. He admitted he was a detective and followed Kelly solely for the purpose of getting on to one of his robberies, that he might inform the authorities and get the reward, if any should be offered. He said he proposed letting Detective Walters into his scheme, and the reason he did not speak of the attempted burglary at the Ward residence, he said, was because it fell through. He said that Kelly attempted to break into four houses that night. In one place, next door to the Ward house, he entered the cellar and Nieman says he wanted remain on the outside, but Kelly who is older, caught him by the hand and threatened to cut him to pieces if he went back on him there. They could not effect an entrance and left turning their attention to the Ward residence. Nieman said it was Kelly who went in there and he saw him pour chloroform on a handkerchief. On the other hand Kelly says it was Nieman who did all this.

Nieman says that Kelly had in contemplation the robbery of Thos. Cruise's cabinet, at the Cruise bank, valued at $20,000. The fact that a watchman is employed at this place had no terrors for him, as he remarked that he could put the watchman to sleep.

Whether Nieman's story is true or not will probably be determined at the trial to be held before Judge Sanders. Both men have been in jail before. Nieman says he was in jail fifteen days in Anaconda, two years ago. He says his home is in Nevada, where he drove a stage. Kelly is known to be a hard criminal and has a long list of robberies to his credit, which Nieman claims he told him about.

Helena's Dog Catcher.

The dog catcher was around yesterday and bagged an even dozen canines of various kinds and descriptions. The Helena dog catcher does not use a rope, nor does he throw the dogs in a wagon. He is a man whom the dogs take to very kindly, and will follow him at his bidding. He says there is not a dog in the country that will not come to him if he calls. Yesterday some of them were so infatuated with him, he says, that it was with difficulty he could keep them away from his feet. If you see a lot of dogs following a man to-day you will know he is the dog catcher.

DELIGHTED PHYSICIANS.

They Are Greatly Pleased With the Baths and Hotel Broadwater.

The visiting physicians at the Hotel Broadwater amused themselves yesterday by viewing the sights of Helena and vicinity and bathing in the thermal waters. They were delighted with the magnificent swimming bath in which they bathed in a body. To-day they leave for Butte returning from that city over the Montana Central and Manitoba roads to St. Paul and Minneapolis. They assembled yesterday and after addressing a complimentary letter to Col. Broadwater passed the following resolutions which were signed by all:

That we admire and applaud the enterprise and foresight which have seized upon the means of nature in this beautiful spot, and have adapted them to the ends of man.

That never before have we been put into hot water with so much comfort and satisfaction to ourselves, and with more faith in the healing properties of the bath.

That whenever we exhaust our own skill in the effort to cure the chronic complaints of our patients we shall take pleasure in pointing them to this pool of Bethesda in the sanitarium of the hot springs of Helena, in the full belief that they will be rejuvenated by its healthful influence and hygienic surroundings.

That we extend to Colonel Broadwater an expression of our grateful appreciation of his cordial welcome and abounding hospitality.
